Employee Engagement

DeXT aims to harness the power of digital revolution to transport team building programs into a new level of effectiveness with the use of technologies throughout the program. The program aims to transport your teams into the future of digital engagement now. The DeXT "Build-to-Give" team building program provides participants with digital immersion as they interact with digital engagement platforms (all through a intuitive mobile app on the participants' mobile phones - eCommerce, Crypto currency, gamification, real-time performance dashboard, feedbacks, quizzes, polls, social comm within the group, sharing moments with videos/chats/photographs etc) throughout the course of the program.
